Terms and Conditions Car Rental

- Parking only in designated parking spaces.
- The car must not be parked on the side of the road or left unattended.
- Driving a vehicle under the influence of alcohol or drug is not permitted.
- In the event of an accident caused by the driver's alcohol or drugs consumption, the driver is liable for the entire amount of the damage.
- In the event of an accident or theft, the police must always be called. Leaving the scene of the accident is only permitted after the police have arrived and have received their permission.
- If the vehicle is stolen, the vehicle rental company must be informed immediately; this also applies in the event of accidents and damage.
- The vehicle must be parked overnight in a closed, fenced area.
- The vehicle must always be parked with all anti-theft devices in place.
- In the event of accidents, theft or damage, the renter is liable for the amount of his deposit. In the event of accidents or vehicle break-ins, the renter is obliged to call the road service on 199 and the vehicle may not be moved from the scene of the accident until the road service has arrived and taken photos. The vehicle may only be moved to the side if the road service allows it.
- It is not permitted to leave items in the vehicle where they are publicly visible.
- Tire damage is at the expense of the vehicle renter.
- The vehicles are only permitted to be driven on public roads and paths.
- The rented vehicle may only be driven and operated by persons named in the rental agreement (have held a driving license for at least 3 years). It is prohibited to sublet or lend the vehicle to third parties.
- If the vehicle cannot be made available for the agreed rental period due to unforeseen repairs, the lessor is not obliged to provide a replacement. The lessor cannot be held liable for any costs incurred by the renter as a result.
- The vehicle must be returned with a full tank. A flat rate of $25 will be charged for each quarter of fuel that is not full.
